Foreword

FALL ...

Upon each little seed, Ready for planting, Hangs a future of mediocrity or greatness. By Nature's relentless workings This seed will be a tall white lily, That one, a strong, stubborn oak, These will yield a field of golden poppies, And those sad weeping willows, And so it is in each little seedling Lie potentialities.

WINTER ...

The ground is bare, The trees are empty; Nature is waiting, watching, Her facade seemingly still and dark. But movements, small and steady, Are stirring beneath the soil, Growing and feeding, Readying for the moment of freedom.

The breakthrough is complete, The buds have appeared, Beneath the smiling skies; And the wind, free, wild, and hardy, Blows with the gustiness of youth. Slowly but surely, maturity steadies and build While exuberance exalts the spirit

Warm and bright with sunshine, Polors spill out in full and glorious tones. The seedlings now fully developed Glow with life -Time has wrought the biggest change of all — Growth, and maturity, Born from the potentialities Of the infinitesimal seed.

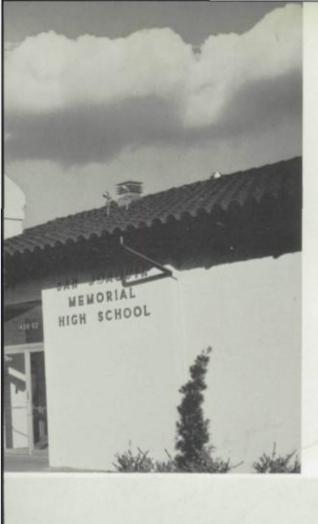

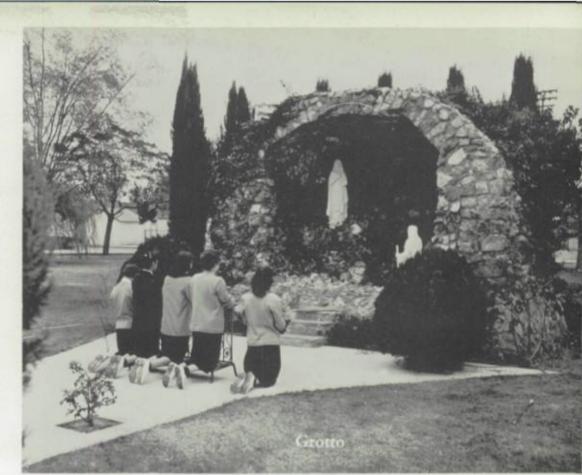

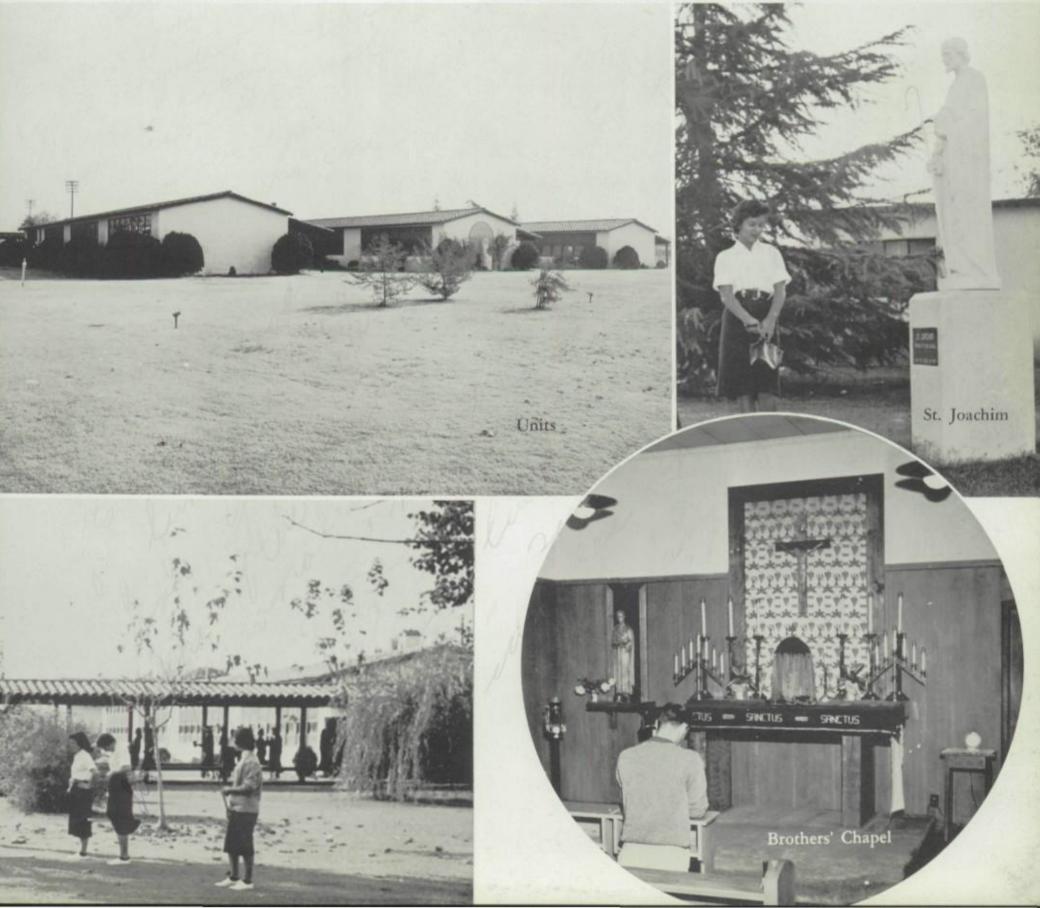

SCENES

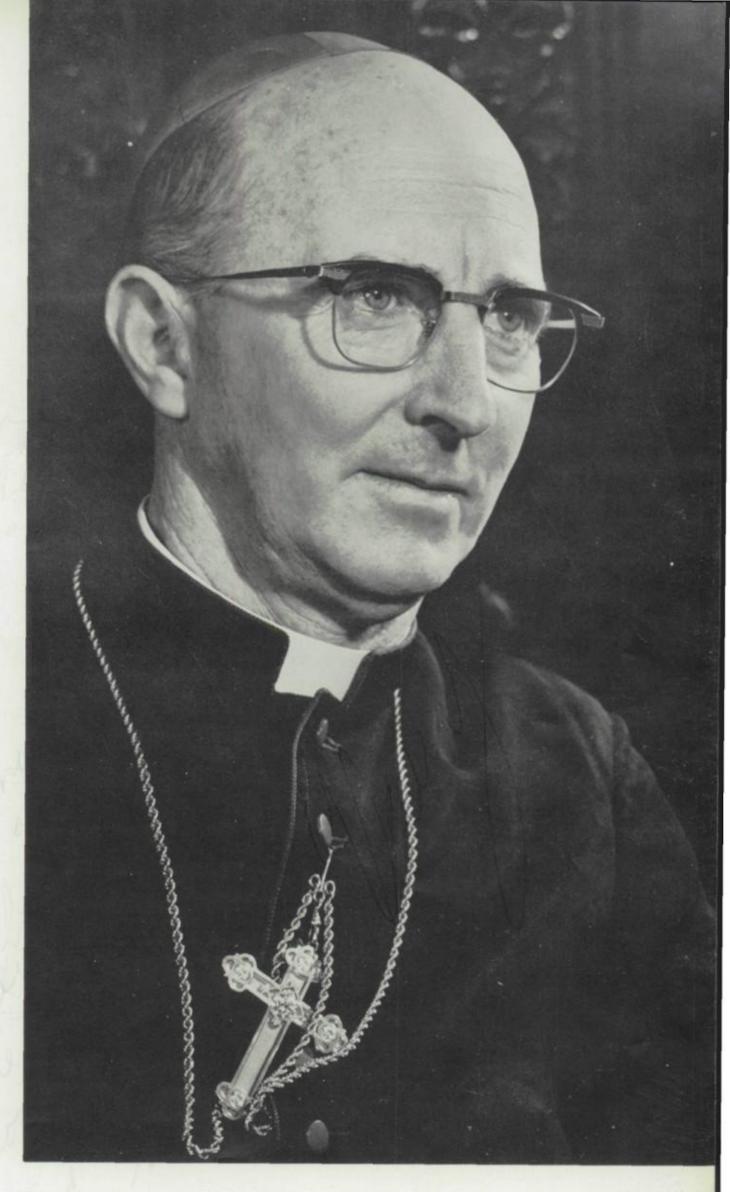

Our Bishops

His Excellency Bishop Aloysius J. Willinger is the guiding force behind San Joaquin Memorial. He has many plans for the future development of the school, which, on completion, will greatly facilitate the efficiency of operations.

The Most Reverend Aloysius J. Willinger, C.Ss.R., D.D., Bishop of Monterey-Fresno Diocese, officiated at Solemn High Pontifical Mass.

Auxiliary Bishop Clinch is Executive Chairman of the new School Board which at present is working to unify policies which are common to all the schools of the Monterey-Fresno Diocese. Before being transferred to Carmel Mission as administrator, Bishop Clinch, while pastor of St. Mary's Church in Taft, directed the building of a completely new parish plant - including Church, Rectory, School and Convent.

The Most Reverend Harry Clinch, Auxiliary Bishop of Monterey-Fresno.

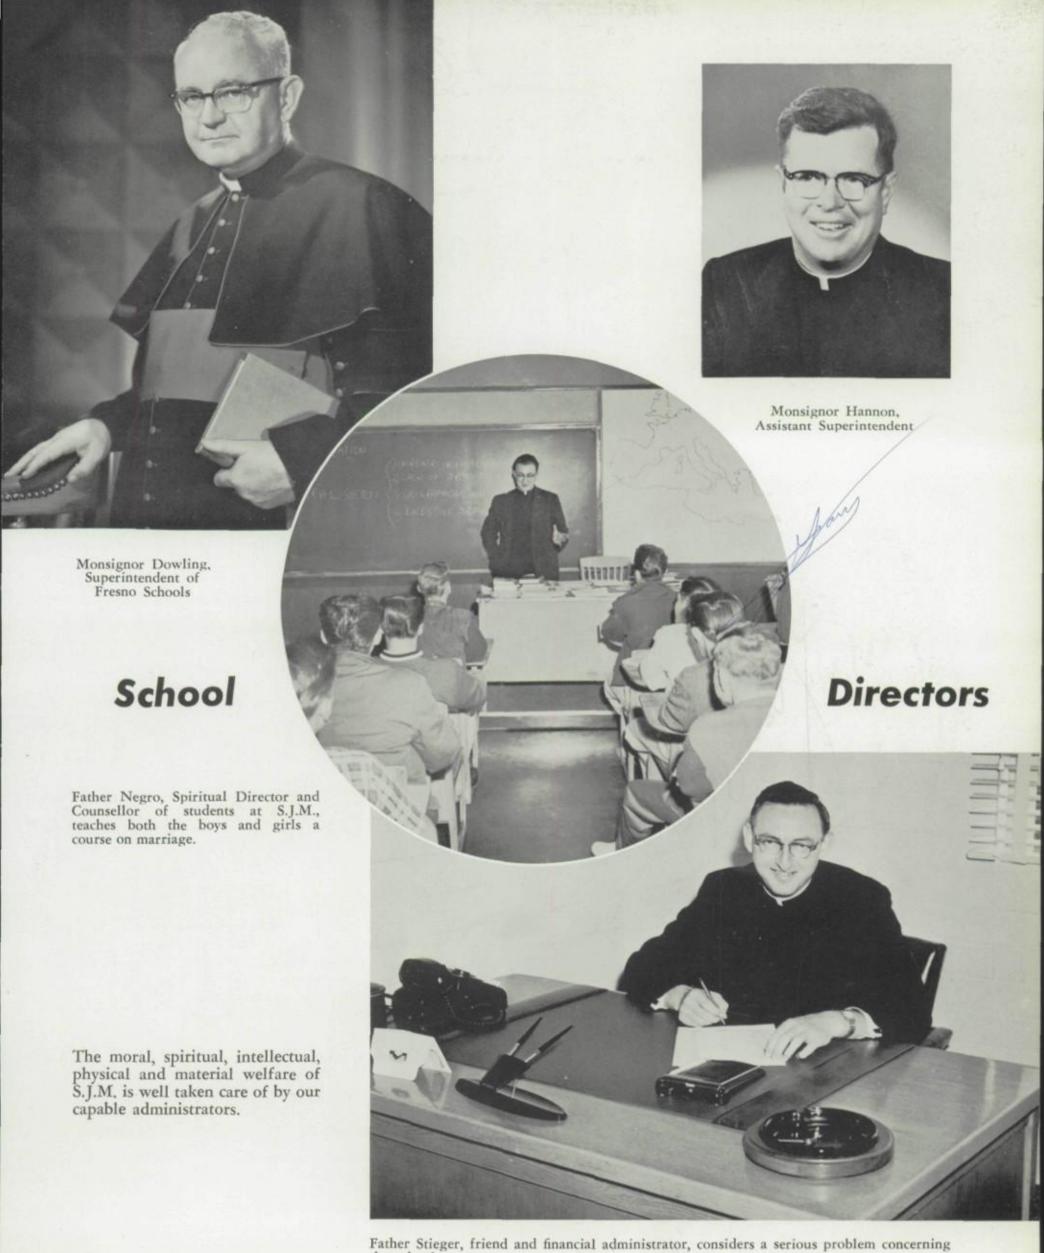

The Monsignors have worked many years with the successive principals on the problems of San Joaquin.

Many a should the wing the statement of the company of the company

We are indebted to the Board of Directors, the pastors in the Fresno area, for continuously devoted assistance in shaping the general policies and for their keen interest in furthering the material development of San Joaquin Memorial.

Father Stieger, friend and financial administrator, considers a serious problem concerning the school.

"Whatever things are true... Whatever holy... Whatever lovely... They think on these things."

Brother Edwin and Sister Emile Louise consult about the weekly school schedule.

Miss Freitas, the indispensable, keeps our books balanced and our spirits buoyant. She and Linda Rivas have fun together in spite of the work.

Admini

Our Co-Principals, Brother Edwin and Sister Emile Louise, by their constant attention to the multiple details of administration keep our school operations working smoothly and maintain high standards of scholarship.

Sister Emile Louise initiates Diane Mele, Patt Lemon, and Linda Rivas into some of the intricate details of office technique.

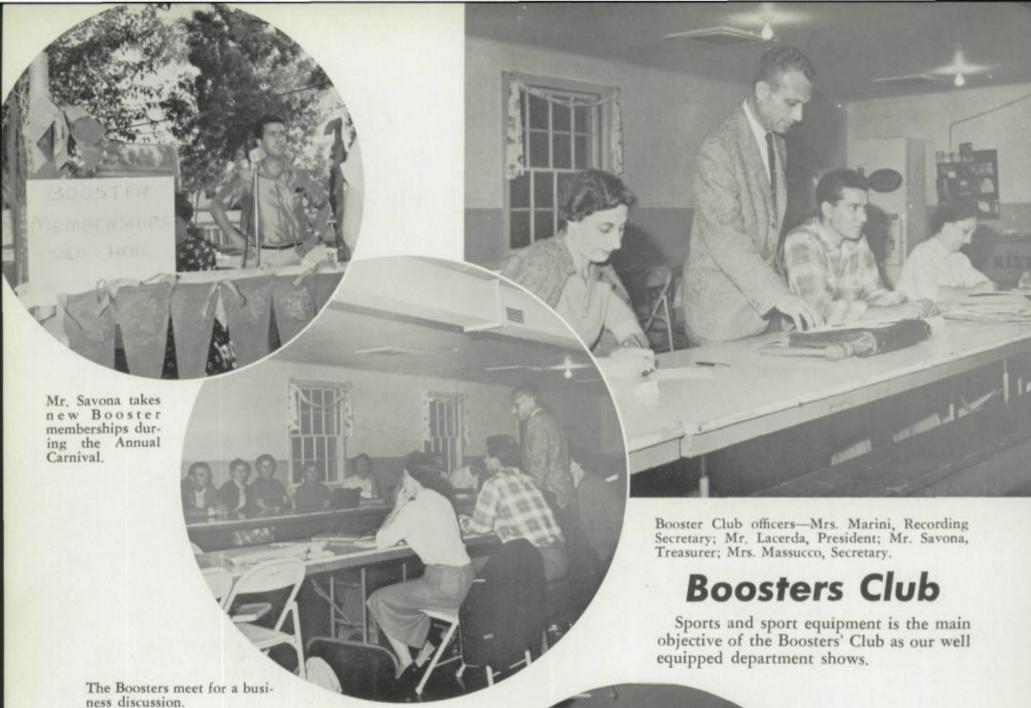

Brother Edwin finds time in a busy day for counseling and guidance.

ration

Helping the administration are those students of office practice, who facilitate the manifold details of the regular staff by caring for many of the smaller tasks which accompany office procedure. Brother Maurice and his office helper, Roger Oraze, file away important scholastic information.

Band Aides

All year round the Band Aides keep in mind the needs of the San Joaquin Memorial band by financing projects which will alleviate the expenses incurred by this organization Purchasing new instruments and music and uniforms is the major interest of this devoted group.

Band-Aides officers examine a new instrument: Mrs. Mandella, Vice-President; Mrs. Del Real, President; Mr. Charles Yrulegui, Treasurer; Mr. Richard Smith, Director. Missing—Mrs. L. Lacerda.

Boosters and Band-Aides working to provide material aid for their respective projects.

Band-Aides sponsor a pot luck supper for the benefit of the instrument-replacement fund.

Presidents-Kathryn Lindauer and Jim Leong

Student-body presidents, Kitje and Jim, are two very popular people at S.J.M. Alert, serious, and active, they carry out their numerous duties cheerfully and efficiently. Kitje still has time to be secretary of the North Shasta League and a member of the Pep Girls. Jim is also a member of the N.S.L. and a top-ranking member of the C.S.F.

One of the imoprtant organizations at San Joaquin is the student body government. In functioning the Student Council makes those decisions pertinent to the well-being of the student life. Representing the students, this council plans and regulates the many activities which help stimulate school spirit. The class presidents, the heads of the various major organizations and the student body officers form the council under the direction of the principals of both departments.

Student

Council

Included also in the work of the Student Council are the planning of the activity program, designing student cards, interpreting the fine points of the Constitution, taking care of the student court, and representing S.J.M. at any Fresno meeting of high school students.

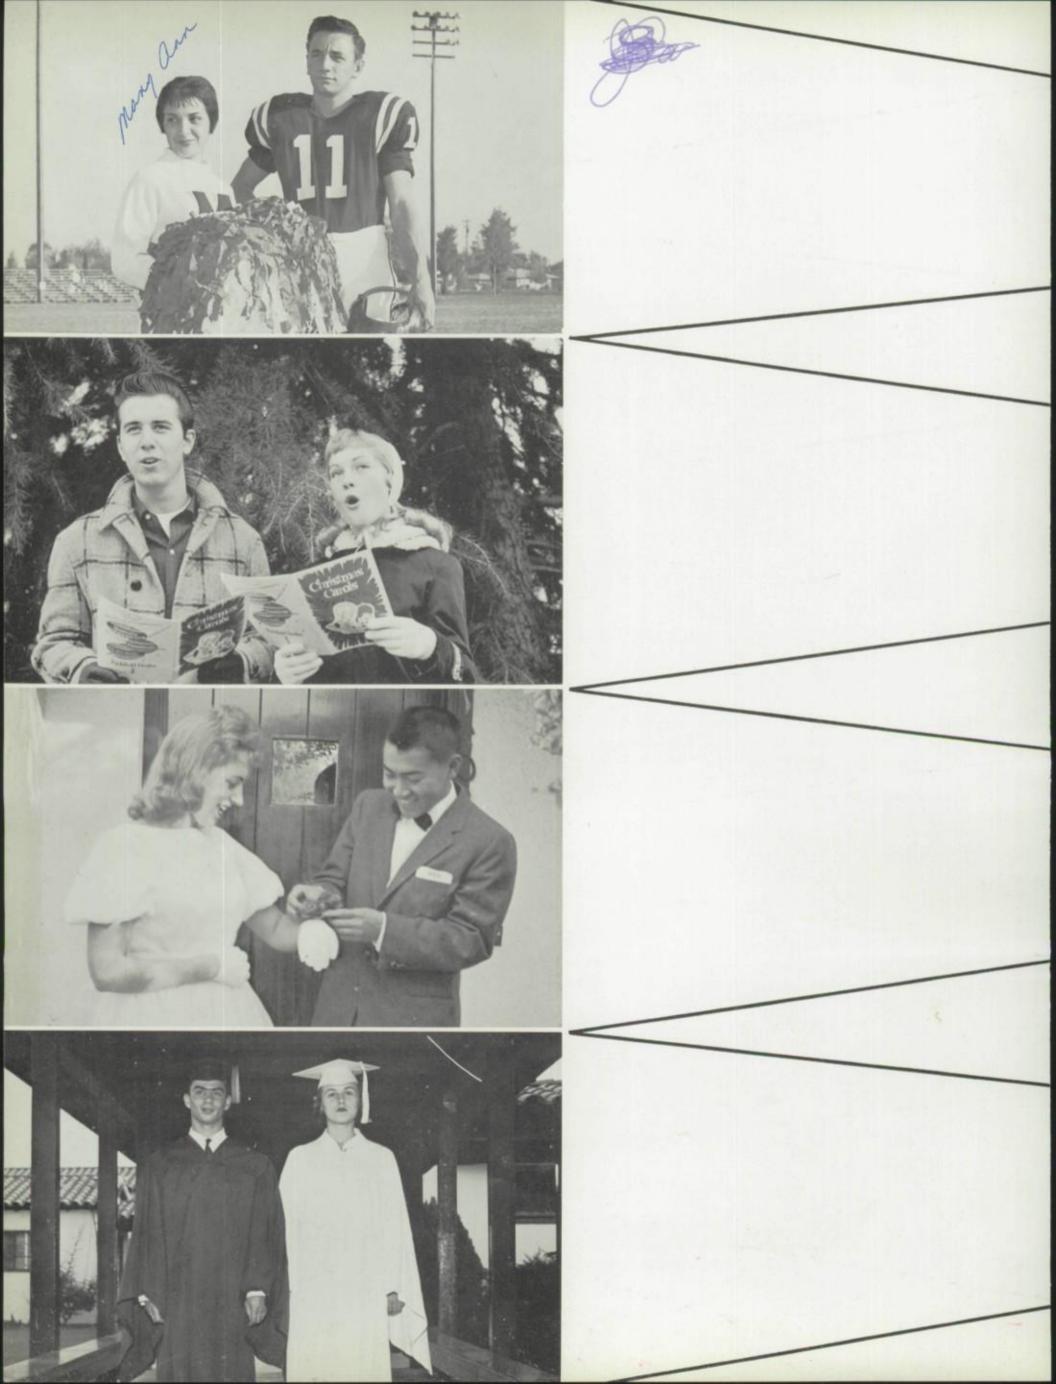

Vice-President Bob Morales and Secretary Jeanne Allard

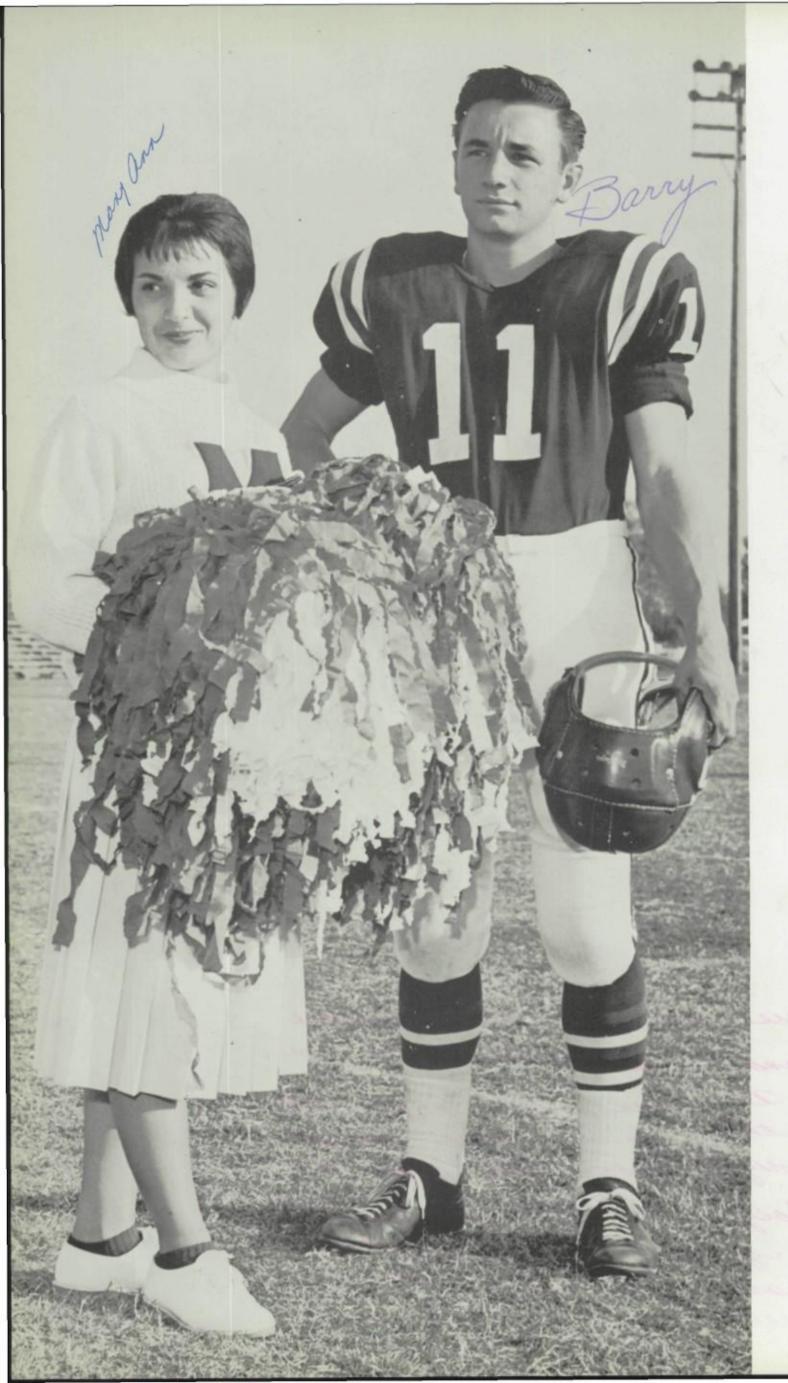

Active but quiet and reserved, Bob and Jeanne are well-liked by the student body and have fun being officers. They take their duties seriously. Both are excellent students and capable leaders.

Student Council—Karyl Lowe, Irmagene Epperson, Louise Costello, Jane Adams, Emil Negrete, James Leong, Sister Emile Louise (Moderator), David Vanoncini, Vicki Gee, James Love, Madeleine Paul, Judy Luft, Terry Allen, Jerry Manuszak, Anthony Solario, Irene McGlynn, Tim Menezes, Agnes Mathiason, Marty Harper, Gene Ambrosini—class presidents.

The dominant spiritual organization of the girls' department is the sodality of Our Lady. In fulfilling the primary object, the attainment of personal holiness and the development of an active Catholicity, the members follow daily the motto, Ad Jesum per Mariam. They strive to become Christlike by imitating the virtues of His Mother. Through the formation of various committees, the sodalists achieve the secondary purpose of the Sodality, the spiritual and corporal works of mercy.

Leaders in Our Lady's organizations Ken Kryzwicki, Menezes.

Catherine Heck, Judy Cleary, and Tim Menezes.

Ken Kryzwicki, Catherine Heck, Tim Menezes, Sherly Derssel, Patty Adolph, and Patty Pagliasotti play the leading parts in the dignified procession held in honor of the Blessed Mother.

In the boys' department the Marian Knights is the group through which spiritual and religious formation is developed. Membership in the Marian Knights is voluntary, and anyone who wishes to become a member must serve one year as a probationer before being received into the organization. The Marian Knights also strive to become Christ-like through imitation of Mary.

Probationists attend classes to prepare for reception into the sodality.

C-D Team

Ron gets pointed instructions by Odell.

Recognition is due to the "C" and "D" teams, who showed such wonderful spirit and such great effort all season. These teams learn the fundamentals of basketball and train for the future Varsity teams.

S. Belles, R. Delpit, T. Lango, R. Bessard, R. Volk, E. Schexnayder, J. Gage, J. Garcia, Coach Johnson.

This year, under the coaching of Odell Johnson, their reputation as basketball players is great, the "C" team reputation as basketball players is great, the "C" team has maintained a 1-4 win-loss record; and the "D" team has tied for first place with Chowchilla with a 4-1 record.

T. Renna, T. Franco, J. Facio, J. Vuglia, G. Bethke, D. Colby, T. Gouge, V. Antonino, S. Capelli, R. Hee, (R. Viloria missing).

Miss Browning helps Marion with a few pointers on handling the bowling ball.

Jackie gets ready to roll up another strike. (Watch your toes, Jackie).

Activities

Throughout the year the girls are active in all types of sports. Bowling, new this year, kept them busy in League competition every Wednesday after school. The tumblers, working hard to keep in practice, can be seen either on the Senior Lawn during warm weather or in the gym. Our coaches work harder, stay longer and cheer louder to help maintain good spirit. The pep and vigor of Miss Piermann and Miss Browning keep activities moving and spirits high.

Campus Cornered

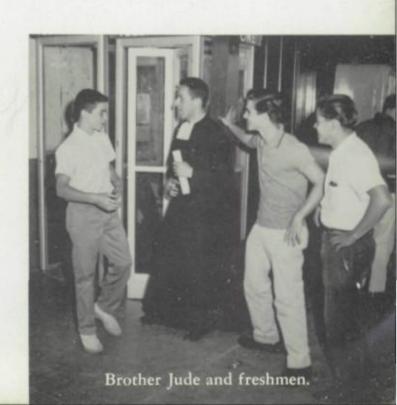

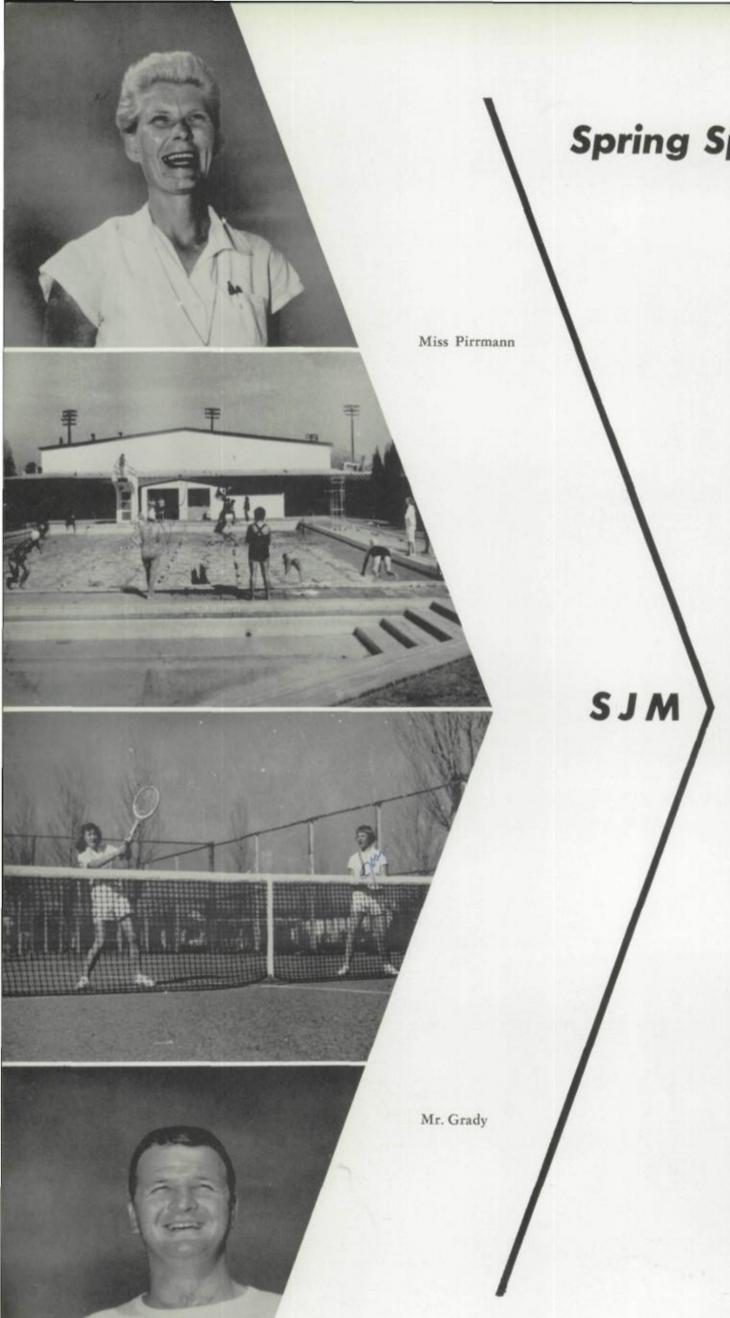

Spring Sport Coaches

Spring is here and swimming suits and tennis rackets have been brought out of their winter hideouts. The campus is again alive with participants in these spring sports. Tennis matches, swim meets, swim meets, tennis matches alternate in swift procession, for these sports have always been most popular at S.J.M. In the past rivalry within the League has been high, and this year proves no exception.

year proves no exception.

The boys' swim team, having lost most of its veteran swimmers, is young and inexperienced, but that has not daunted its fire and enthusiasm. The girls' swim team, consisting mostly of veterans of other years, is a strong contender for the league honors.

The tennis team shows great promise of capturing the league title.

The outstanding swimmers for the boys—Bill Stenger, Al Fierro, Gary McKeighan, Jim Gage, Mike McCormick and Mike Crookham.
